

Other municipalities: Review of Civic Addressing

	City of Edmonton	City of Beaumont	Parkland County	Strathcona County	Rocky View County	Red Deer County	Leduc County	Yellowhead County
Format	Policy for municipal addressing and road naming	Municipal addressing bylaw and a naming policy for streets, parks, trails, neighbourhoods & municipal facilities.	Addressing & Road naming bylaw and administrative directive	Addressing Authority Bylaw & Road naming Policy	Bylaw for municipal addressing and Road naming policy	Policy for Municipal Addressing	Bylaw for municipal addressing	Bylaw for rural addressing
To what extent do rural counties use urban addressing?	N/A	N/A	Only assigns urban addresses to hamlets of Duffield, Entwistle, Gainford and Tomahawk and Acheson Industrial park. All other hamlets and CR subdivisions use rural addresses.	Bylaw distinguishes between rural and urban areas for addressing but does not give any guidance on what is considered "urban" or "rural".	It's a total mixture of urban and rural addresses. Even some condominiums have rural addressing.	Administration uses its discretion in assigning urban addresses in hamlets, business and industrial parks	Only assigns urban addresses to higher density subdivisions as specified in the bylaw.	No provision is made for urban addressing.
If any of the 6 counties use urban addressing, how and when did they introduce it?	N/A	N/A	Dates back to when hamlets was created many years ago.	Bylaw introduced in 2010.	Started using urban addresses for new CR subdivisions in ±2003 with their previous bylaw.	Addressing policy only introduced in 2019.	Municipal addressing bylaw introduced in 2013.	N/A